

DETAILS OF ALL EVENTS ORGANIZED BY TEAM IETE MPSTME IN ACADEMIC YEAR 2020-21

	1. Placements Decoded - 8th August, 2020; Zoom, YouTube In this webinar, attendees got an insight into the area of placements and interviews and touched upon points and questions that most of the students, especially the ones in the last two years of their course want answered. The speaker for this event was Mr. Shashank Mishra, a data engineer at Amazon who has previously worked at Paytm, McKinsey etc. There was a total of around 500 attendees from all over India and certificates were given out for attending the webinar.
	2. Digi- Hunt - 6th September,2020; Google forms, Microsoft Teams Digi-Hunt was the first online treasure hunt organised by a committee in MPSTME which allowed participants to have a good time while solving clues and tasks given to them and to let everyone have fun during this pandemic. There was a total of 183 teams of 3 or 4 members each, making the total number of participants 711. The event mainly progressed through encrypted google forms and pdfs where the password to the next clue was the solution of the previous. The first place was a cash price of 4000 rupees and a lucky draw of headphones worth 1000 rupees.
	3. Interncon – 23rd, 24th , 25th September, 2020; Microsoft Teams Interncon was a three-day conference on internships, with speakers who reflected on their experience for their respective internships in companies like Amazon, Adobe, Microsoft, Gsoc, UC Irvine and many more, and gave useful insights as to how to get internships in well-known companies and the major skills that are to be inculcated. The three days of conferences were on Corporate, Research and Opensource Internships. Sujeet Soni, Kushal Vijay, Tripti Mishra, Amogh Desai, Laveesh Gupta, Vidhi Mody, Samyak Jhaveri and Benedict Arockiaraj were speakers for this event. We received 1261 registrations and the total foot fall was 1131.
	4. AZENT Study Abroad Webinar - 17th October, 2020; Zoom This event had speakers who were expert counsellors with specific country-wise experience who spoke about the eligibility criteria for studying in each country, the scholarships offered in top universities, the fees structure and how overseas education can enhance personal and career growth in countries like USA, UK, Canada, Australia etc. The speakers answered the questions of the attendees and the total foot fall of the event was 50.

5. Workshop.psd – 23rd February, 2021; Zoom

Workshop.psd was a webinar in which all the attendees learnt how to use the photo editing application- Photoshop. The speaker for this event was Abhishek Anand Pandey with the help of whom the participants had a good time as they learnt the basics of this application. There was a total of 89 attendees for this webinar and were taught the ins and outs of the software by the speaker. This event was followed by a competition to judge what they had learnt by submitting their digital art based on the topic given.

6. BugBash- An approach to Bug Bounty – 26th, 27th February, 2021; Zoom

BugBash was a two-day webinar in which all the attendees learnt about bug bounty. The speaker for this event was Gaurav Chaudhary, a 19-year-old school dropout and the founder of Team Venom which has been highlighted in the International Hacking Forum. The main motive behind this event was to educate more students about the concept of bug bounty and to grow their interest in this unique program. There was a total of 100 attendees and all the attendees were given certificates.

7. Run Time Terror – 5th March, 2021, Google Forms, HackerRank, Discord

This event was a debugging competition where the participants would use languages like C, C++ or Python. There were three elimination rounds in this competition on basis of time, speed and efficiency. The first price was Rs.1000 and a headphone and the runner up price was a headphone. There was a total of 45 participants for this competition and all of them were given certificates.

8. Omega – 7th March, 2021, Discord, Call of Duty game

Omega was a Call of Duty Tournament conducted as a part of Pre'lectro. This was a fun event conducted to lift up the spirits of the participants and to let them have a good time along with their friends amidst the pandemic. There were 36 teams in total with 5 participants each. The registration fee was Rs. 150 and the price pool was of Rs. 12,000 along with other special prices given to certain teams.

9. Shodh – 7th March, 2021, Zoom

This event was a webinar on how to write informative and mind-grasping research papers. The speaker for this event was Swapnil Singh, an MPSTME student who has had his paper published in the International Journal of Advance Sciences and Technology. He spoke about the components of a research paper and gave tips on how to get it published in a Journal/Conference. The total foot fall of this event was 100.